Designing playful learning in Christian Studies

You don't have to wait for the new Christian Studies Curriculum to start exploring the Core Concepts!

Join Maria Taylor from Outside the Box Learning for a practical, hands-on workshop where you will explore how play, inquiry and the Christian Studies Curriculum Framework (CSCF) can bring the Core Concepts to life.

- Explore practical play and inquiry-based learning experiences
- Use the CSCF to uncover opportunities for concept-based planning
- Collaborate with colleagues to design engaging Christian Studies learning
