

Christian Studies Leaders Workshop

Preparing for the Implementation of the new Christian Studies Curriculum

Join Mignon Weckert, Educational Leadership Director, for an interactive workshop that equips Christian Studies leaders to confidently lead the implementation of the new Christian Studies Curriculum.

Through a focus on self, relational and systems awareness, participants will explore how effective leadership can foster meaningful and sustainable change within their learning communities.

Participants will:

- Grow capabilities that are fundamental to leading educational change
- Apply systems thinking to examine the current reality of Christian Studies within their learning community
- Identify personal, relational and organisational priorities to support strategic planning for 2027 and beyond
